

Entry Guide for Swansea International Salon

Digital Entry

You must enter On-line, even if you are only entering Prints or via CD.
For a digital entry, log on and the screen below is shown.

The screenshot shows the Swansea International Salon 2011 website. At the top, there are logos for PSA (Photographic Society of America, 75 YEARS), FIAP (Fédération Internationale de Photographie), and UP (United Photographers International). The main content area is titled "Digital" and states "You can enter 4 entries in 4 sections". A bulleted list shows the sections: Nature, People, Sport, and Open. Below this, it says "Digital image only" and asks "Do you want to send your image files on CD or upload them now?". There are "No" and "Yes" buttons. A "Back" button is also present. The footer contains the copyright notice "© Swansea Camera Club and PhotoCompSoftware".

The screen shot above shows that the digital images are to be uploaded.

The programme has titled the image automatically, as above, if the system cannot make a title that is acceptable, you can edit the title.

Please ensure the titles are what you want in the catalogue, a camera generated image number or a special format demanded by other salons is not sensible and may bar the image from inclusion in the printed catalogue, if we accept a large number of images.

After all uploading has completed select the button moves you on to the next section. Having completed the required sections you will have the payment screen shown.
